

Session Proposals for 2020 IARIW General Conference, Norway

| |
|--|
| 1. “Globalization, Trade in Services and Intangibles: Conceptual Challenges and Measurement Issues” by Philippe Stauffer (FSO), Sanjiv Mahajan (ONS), Tanja Mucha (Destatis) and John Haas (STATEC) |
| 2. “The Potential and Challenges of Big Data and Other Alternative Data in Economic Measurement” by Catherine Van Rompaey (Statistics Canada), Thesia I. Garner (BLS, US), and Mary O’Mahony (King’s College, London) |
| 3. “Time Use, Welfare, and GDP” by Diane Coyle (Cambridge University), Leonard Nakamura (Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia) and Kevin Fox (University of New South Wales, Australia) |
| 4. “Globalization and Inequality” by Gaaitzen de Vries and Marcel Timmer (University of Groningen) |
| 5. “Economic Growth and Productivity with Special Emphasis on Developing Economies” by Deb Kusum Das (Ramjas College, University of Delhi), Sabrina Wulff Pabilonia (BLS, United States), Wendy Li (BEA, United States), and Nick Oulton (LSE) |
| 6. “The Effects of Artificial Intelligence on Income, Education, and the Economy” by Wendy Li (BEA,US) and Sabrina Wulff Pabilonia (BLS, U.S) |
| 7. “Online Platforms, Cloud Computing, the Value of Data and Intellectual Property” by Daniel Ker (OECD), Wendy Li (BEA, US), Dylan Rassier (BEA, US), Catherine Van Rompaey (Statistics Canada) |
| 8. “Non-cognitive Skills: How are they Formed? What Are their Returns? ” by Anthony Lepinteur (University of Luxembourg) |
| 9. “Comparing Income and Price Levels and International Income Inequality” by Robert Inklaar (University of Groningen) and Prasada Rao (University of Queensland) |
| 10. “Inequalities in Opportunity for Income, Education and Health” by Nicholas Rohde (Griffith University) |
| 11. “Recent Experiences in Both Official and Academic Approaches to Measuring Poverty” by Michael Wolfson (University of Ottawa) and Olga Cantó Sánchez (Universidad de Alcalá de Henares, Spain) |
| 12. “Measurement in the Real State Market” by Robert Hill (Robert J. Hill (University of Graz, Austria), Thesia Garner(BLS), Sofie Walzl (LISER), Alicia N. Rambaldi (The University of Queensland), W. Erwin Diewert (University of British Columbia), Tjeerd Jellema (European Central Bank), Chihiro Shimizu (Nihon University), Peter van de Ven (OECD), and Paulus Konjin (EuroStat) |